

I am commenting on the priority of LPFM stations over translation services. I currently listen to KLOVE on 90.5 and prefer this programming over any of the other local stations. If this station was replaced by another of a different type, there would not longer be any christian programming in my area. I believe that KLOVE serves the public interest by providing this tyhpe of programming.